

stuff he has said in news interviews seen online, and the fact he is stalking me and others. And, I am totally tired of being a victim or target of his stalking and insanity.

7. Jason Leiderman has gone in front of about 8 judges so far trying to have me held in contempt of non-existent court orders, trying to get restraining orders against me for imaginary happenings, etc. This is a HUGE burden to me -- on my time, my finances, on my health, on my profession, on my family, on my reputation, etc.

8. In Document 114-main, Paragraph 150, page 27, lines 6-9, and correspondingly in Document 115-main, Paragraph 150, page 26, line 21, Mr. Leiderman states I am "mentally ill." I have no history whatever of any mental illness. This seems to be Mr. Leiderman projecting his own rather obvious problems.

9. In Document 114-main, Paragraph 150, page 27, lines 6-9, and correspondingly in Document 115-main, Paragraph 150, page 26, lines 21-22, Mr. Leiderman states I am a "close conspirator of Retzlaff and Camp." This is something that exists only in Mr. Leiderman's head. I don't know Mr. Retzlaff at all and Mr. Camp is a former client of mine whom I helped on a small matter involving Mr. Leiderman. Mr. Camp is not my client at this time and my relationship with him has at all times been one of the greatest of ethics and integrity. Also, I am aware that Mr. Camp does not know Mr. Retzlaff. This big conspiracy exists only in Mr. Leiderman's brain.

10. In Document 114-main, Paragraph 150, page 27, lines 6-9, and correspondingly in Document 115-main, Paragraph 150, page 26, lines 18-22, Mr. Leiderman states that I advised Mr. Camp on some court case(s). There is no truth to this and I do not even know what the court cases are that he mentions, nor do I care. This is just more nonsense made up by Mr. Leiderman that has no basis in fact.

11. In Document 114-main, Paragraph 150, page 27, line 9, and correspondingly in Document 115-main, Paragraph 150, page 26, line 23, Mr. Leiderman states that I am a resident of California. I am not, and have written many times that I live far outside of California. I have included this in sworn court statements.

12. In Document 114-main, Paragraph 150, page 27, lines 10-11, and correspondingly in Document 115-main, Paragraph 150, page 26, lines 24-25, Mr. Leiderman states that Joseph Camp likes stalking women. I am aware that Mr. Camp has a group of devoted women who are grateful to him because he protected them from the stalking conducted by Mr. Leiderman, his client, James McGibney, and their associates who are known by their twitter handles of priest, CattyIdiot, and CaptienObvious. Mr. Camp is being stalked by at least two women connected to Mr. Leiderman and Mr. McGibney. There is ample public evidence of this, including one of the women, who is a lawyer for the Social Security Administration, appearing on idiotic internet radio shows where she defames and belittles Mr. Camp and even impersonates him. I have an mp3 recording of such a radio show from December 13, 2014. Mr. Leiderman and his group engage in outlandish, totally unprofessional, malicious, nonstop stalking and bullying behavior and then act surprised when any of their victims react.

13. In Document 114-main, Paragraph 150, page 27, lines 11-12, and correspondingly in Document 115-main, Paragraph 150, page 26, lines 25-26, Mr. Leiderman claims Joseph Camp was accused of planting a hidden camera in a shared bathroom where Joseph Camp lives in a small town in rural New York state. I am aware that this is a false and bizarre accusation made by Mr. Leiderman from California. It is my understanding that Mr. Leiderman sent out a supposed private investigator to stalk down where Mr. Camp lives, and then called law enforcement agencies with this wild tale of hidden cameras. It is my understanding that the Tompkins County, NY sheriff actually did rush over to search the bathroom where Mr. Camp resides, and of course, there were no cameras or peepholes or other things imagined by Mr. Leiderman, who is 3000 miles away in California. This appears to be another example of Mr. Leiderman making malicious false police reports about Mr. Camp. Mr. Leiderman has not only included this false and bizarre accusation in this court filing, but has also posted online his own fantasies claiming that Joe Camp “likes to watch girls poop.” This is the behavior of a licensed attorney.

14. In Document 114-main, Paragraph 150, page 27, line 12-14, and correspondingly in Document 115-main, Paragraph 150, page 26, lines 26-27, Mr. Leiderman claims Joseph Camp is “romantically smitten” with Mr. Leiderman. This is hilarious. I am aware that Mr. Camp is a heterosexual young man who dates and has relationships with good-looking young women. Mr. Camp, as a joke, has begun signing things “Gay for Jay,” but this is simply a joke that refers to Mr. Leiderman’s insistence that Mr. Camp is in love with him.

15. As to the rest of Document 114-main and 115-main, from what I know, the stuff written in these documents seems confused, incoherent, irrelevant, completely off-topic, and not true.

16. As one example, Mr. Leiderman keeps insisting in his court filings that a certain Wordpress blog he does not like, ViaView Files, is run by Mr. Retzlaff, when the blog admins have posted to him MANY times that this is not the case. (Note: I do not help run the ViaView Files blog.)

17. Mr. Leiderman refers to the ViaView Files blog comments he does not like as being written by Mr. Retzlaff. In fact, any comment on that blog could just as easily be written by Mr. Leiderman himself. Readers of that blog suspect that it is Mr. Leiderman who posts “threats” to himself and Mr. McGibney, so he has something “harrowing” to include in his court filings. This is a running joke, but it is true that “threats” only appear in the blog’s comments just before Mr. Leiderman has a court filing due. He includes the threats in his court paperwork, without noting they are immediately followed by comments from people objecting to the “threats,” and with no mention that the “threats are usually quickly deleted by the blog administrators.

18 Also, Mr. Leiderman claims to know who is running which Twitter accounts. As a long-time Twitter user, I know this is not possible, unless there is an account associated with a person’s name that they currently claim as theirs. For example, @JayLeidermanLaw is Jay Leiderman. My account is @SueBasko. Other than claimed accounts or accounts verified by Twitter, there is no real way to know. Twitter closes abusive accounts, and has closed down many accounts run by James McGibney. Twitter has no way to keep him or other abusive users from simply opening more new accounts.

I, Susan Basko, state under penalty of perjury in the state of California and the United States of America that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
