HI

I'm not sure if I sent this before. I want you to know that someone from Preesi's blog is responsible for outing Sage (██████████) -- this was sent to Lisak and she then forwarded it to me. Sage's entire premise for posting my mugshot and railing on me for her outing is not valid. It was not me in the first place.

Additionally, and I am not trying to sound cold here, but her husband passed away 4 YEARS before she was outed. Just how long does the "grieving widow" status last?

I'm still waiting to hear back from my lawyer. Thank you for not posting my comments and adding to my haters orgasmic glee.

On a side note- how much would I have to pay you to get you to DOX them? I'm serious. I could probably raise some cash to make it happen.

LOL- Jen
