TO RON BRYNAERT:

Ron, my legal work is NONE of your business. Your posts about my legal work are defamatory.

It would be utterly unethical for me to speak to you about my legal work, and I have instructed certain clients to absolutely NOT speak with you at all. You must stop harassing/ cyberstalking me and my clients and former clients.

This is a warning that you MUST remove all tweets and posts about my legal work because your statements and implications are defamatory/ false light.

You are not entitled to ANY information about my legal work, my clients, or any other matter regarding my legal work. You are NOT to post about it and you are not to contact any of my clients in ANY way asking or prying for information.

IF YOU DO NOT IMMEDIATELY REMOVE ALL TWEETS AND POSTS ABOUT MY LEGAL WORK, or if you continue, YOU may be subject to a restraining order, cyberstalking complaint, defamation lawsuit, or other legal action.
